Re: 3/28 EV Mandate Town Hall. As an owner of an EV, I CHOSE to get one and I CHOSE to buy a gas vehicle as well. There is NO science indicating that our freedom of choice needs to be taken away when it comes to buying cars. Mandating this is tyrannical nonsense. We elect legislators to represent us and create policy for us - we don't install a king. You have stripped our representatives of their ability to represent us and debate this openly. We are a constitutional republic and therefore have rights against despotic behavior.
