Comments:

I am not against EVs. Anyone who wants one and can afford it, should be able to buy one. Maybe in the future, I'll consider one. Maybe not. I am against any mandate forcing me to drive, buy or maintain one, much less be forced to syphon personal funds from expenses like groceries, housing, college tuition for my kids or helping others in need. I am vehemently against this mandate as I would be against a mandate to be a vegan. Simple as that.
