

Subject: electric vehicle mandate

Date: Monday, May 15, 2023 at 5:56:39 PM Eastern Daylight Time

From: Terence Crumlish

To: HearingComments, DNREC (MailBox Resources)

I am absolutely against this electric vehicle mandate. It's unamerican to deny people their choice of what they want to buy. I thought this was the United States of America. Also none of this nonsense going on across the country won't do much when you have countries with much larger populations burning as much fossil fuel as they want and the United States can do nothing to stop. When electric cars become as inexpensive to operate I will consider buying one.

Terence Crumlish 32 barnard st. newark de.
crumlishhouse@verizon.net