To the people of DNREC wanting to ban the sale and registration of privately owned vehicles with an internal combustion engine I ask WHO THE HECK ELECTED YOU? The people of Delaware are not a bunch of serfs or minions for you to lord over with your heavy handed dictate's and hollow, meaningless overtures to liberal green fanatics. I won't even get into the willful ignorance it takes to believe forcing a particular product on a populace while outlawing another, will somehow prevent a climate related catastrophe. What a bunch of hocus pocus. In this action alone (not to mention the endless litany of bs legislation that comes from legislative hall with its tyrant D majority and its handful of impotent R's), it is proof positive that this state is anything but free, and firmly believes that to some extent the citizens of DE are property to be pushed into submission of the state. These EV's are expensive, they're heavy, the batteries cost a fortune not to mention the raw materials are sourced in large part by slave labor. They will require more frequent road maintenance which will cost us more money in taxes. Regardless of what you get low info neanderthal voters to believe, we know that there is not a future coming where grid tied Solar and offshore wind allows you to shut down fuel and coal plants, or uncouple yourselves from the nuke over in Salem. We also know you will start charging for those rapid charge stations and it will not always be a free service. I predict this stupid idea falls flat on its face and it is a waste of everyone's time and money to even push it forward against a will of the people. This is exactly the type of crap that will force people to flee from this state as they are in droves from other left wing disasters like NY and NJ, or the disaster that is CA, which this proposed rule is a copycat of. I have a proposed piece of legislation for you. How about all you folks north of the canal ask PA to take you on as a county and secede from our state. Take MOT with you. In everything you up north folks do, from this dumb law to sending a bunch of expatriated people from New England states into crappy developments in Kent and Sussex county, you undermine the will and values of the further south minority. You are hell bent on ruining this state. Stop telling us what to do and leave us alone. Very sincerely, DWB.
