How dare you attempt to make us comply with this mandate!! These things need to develop on their own, not forced on people!! If it's viable, it will evolve. Heck, even the gas cars now a days are nothing like they started out! They evolved over time. Know your role, don't force things on people!! This isn't Russia for goodness sake. Take the commie ideas and keep them to yourself. How would your parents act after they found out you forced this on people? Would they think you were part of Nazi Germany in the 30-40's
