Delaware Politicians,

Let me be crystal clear. This is the dumbest idea ever. I have a much better idea. Let the market decide. If Americans want EVs, great. Why do need to mandate EV? Yep, strongly rhetorical question, to which you all already know the answer. That's why it's a "MANDATE". I am happy to debate every politician in favor of this foolishness any day, any time. I will immediately sell my property and buy in FL. EVS ARE 1000x worse for the environment than gas vehicles. LET THE MARKET DECIDE!!
