

Subject: EV VEHICLES

Date: Wednesday, May 24, 2023 at 10:59:29 AM Eastern Daylight Time

From: jsptak@verizon.net

To: HearingComments, DNREC (MailBox Resources)

CC: david.deputy12@gmail.com

I think that this is a terrible idea. Our electric grid cannot accommodate this. It does not work in California, since they have limited the times to charge the vehicles. It will be even worse here, where it can be colder and we have more severe winters which will hamper the batteries. Just because California does it, does not mean that Delaware has to do it. Just look back several years ago and remember what happened with deregulation of electricity.

John Ptak

Pike Creek

Sent from AOL on Android