I find your lack of interest or caring about the 400,000 plus residents of the state who will be devastated by this EV mandate financially. There is so much I can say. Are you like most government employees just looking for another power grab. You have your secure jobs and pensions. So just bang on about your virtue and goodwill. Never thinking ANYTHING through and the consequences. How dare so few people decree such a BIG "mandate." You people have lost all perspective. My household is not just me but 6 of us. I was a lifelong Democrat until 2015. This has secured the other 5 to the other side.
