I am commenting on the EV mandate. I believe you are going about this the wrong way by ramming this down the throats of everyone. I would like to move towards safe and reliable electric vehicles, but there is not enough infrastructure in place, and fires scare me. Do not limit, or restrict the use of combustion engine vehicles at this time. Get infrastructure in place first, then slowly make the transition. Do not punish your voters. Give us time to adapt properly. Thank you.
