This administration has been cutting back so many environmental limits and regulations. This is horrible for our planet and for the people on the planet. No one wants worse air quality???? yall are out of your damn minds.... The rich and powerful will have clean air im sure... anyways yeah losing faith in EPA and Government because yall are really not for the people because the people WANT CLEAN AIR. Which should be a constitutional right, which is what the green amendment states. I think we should stop being up Trump's ass and need to stand our ground.
