Hi Shawn!

I was wondering why Delaware is promoting this EV sales law when it seems that Delaware is keeping one of the most popular EV manufacturers from selling cars in this state? I'm taking about Tesla. Why is it that I can buy a Tesla in PA and then register it here in DE but I can't lease a Tesla in PA and do the same? These archaic franchise laws need to change. Delaware is missing out on a lot of money by not allowing Tesla to sell here. With all the freedoms we have in the US, buying whichever manufacturer of car I like should be one of them.

Thanks!
