

Restoring the Phenomenon of Migratory Shad to the Brandywine River

Brandywine River Restoration Trust

FOUNDING MEMBERS

- Brandywine Conservancy
- Hagley Museum & Library
- University of Delaware
Water Resources Center

SUPPORTING ORGANIZATIONS

- American Rivers
- Brandywine Red Clay Alliance
- Delaware Nature Society
- Partnership for The Delaware Estuary
- Stroud Water Research Center
- State of Delaware/DNREC
- The Conservation Fund
- The Nature Conservancy
- US Fish & Wildlife / NFWS

Our Mission

Restore and protect the Brandywine River to enable migration of American Shad and improve ecological function while providing equitable opportunity for environmental education and recreation

Bold indicates in programs in progress

Brandywine Shad Restoration

0 1 2 Miles

Brandywine Conservancy
Environmental Management Group
1700 Locust Street, Suite 200
Wilmington, DE 19802

Select Accomplishments To Date

- Raised over $2 million from Federal, State, private foundations, corporations and individuals
- Dam #1 removed by City of Wilmington in 2019
- UD Sea Grant conducted Juvenile Shad Population Study proving shad are spawning past dam #1 now that it has been removed
- Worked with the Port of Wilmington to obtain $3 million for passage at Dam #2 as remediation for habitat destruction in the Delaware
- Worked with DNREC to obtain sediment samples in proximity to 8 dams and found that there is no threat from harmful chemicals
- Working with DNREC and Army Corps of Engineers to finalize approval of permit for removal of Dams #4 and #6 in 2023