

Wetlands and Waterways Section Restoration Perspective

Rebecca Bobola, Environmental Program Manager

DNREC, Division of Water, Wetlands and Waterways Section

Permitting Process Necessities

Preliminary Environmental Review

Critical Resource Waters

Assists in determining permitting pathway

Mitigation Plan

Adaptive Management Plan

Table and flow chart template are available

Sediment analysis

Analytical results and summary

Alternative analysis for restoration projects

Nationwide Permit number being utilized

Permitting Process Necessities

Wetlands and Waterways Section

Basic Application

Relevant Appendices

Wetlands

Living Shoreline

Channel modifications

Fill

Rip-rap

Wetlands and Subaqueous Lands Permits

Any person or organization seeking a permit, lease or other authorization from the Department must complete the Wetlands and Subaqueous Lands Permit Application Form and any appropriate appendices from the list below.

Submit Online

Boat Docking Facilities

Boat Ramps

Road Crossing

Channel Modifications or Impoundment Structures

Utility Crossings

Intake or Outfall Structures

Bulkheads

Fill

Rip-Rap

Vegetative Stabilization

Jetties, Groins, or Breakwater

Construction in State Wetlands

Preliminary Marina Screening Checklist

Marinas

Stormwater Management

Ponds and Impoundments

Maintenance Dredging or

Excavating

New Dredging Projects

New Dredging Projects

Contact Information

Requesting an Environmental Review:

DNREC_EnvReview@delaware.gov

Submit on letterhead, include a detail scope of work, and clear maps of boundaries and limits of disturbance

Cost: $35 per hour

Submitting an application to WWS

<https://dnrec.alpha.delaware.gov/water/wetlands-subaqueous/permits/>

Permitting guidance

302-739-9943 – Wetlands and Waterways Section, Scientist of the Day

